

2nd Emerging North East 2019 from today

STAFF REPORTER

GUWAHATI, Feb 19: The Associated Chambers of Commerce and Industry of India (ASSOCHAM) is organising the '2nd Emerging North East 2019 - Exhibition cum Conference' at the Maniram Dewan Trade Centre here from February 20 to 22.

Member of Parliament Bijoya Chakravarty will inaugurate the event in presence of senior officers of the Central and the State governments.

The key objective of the event is to facilitate investments and partnerships, providing opportunities for local youth, women, NGOs and development agencies to interact with the national-level institutions, industries, experts and officials.

The mega event, comprising Development Expo, Agri and Rural Expo and North East Development Meet, will provide an opportunity to showcase the region's potential and opportunities for the rest of the country.

The Bureau of Outreach & Communication (BOC) will represent the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting by putting up a photo exhibition on 'Saaf Niyat Sahi Vikas' and '150 years of Mahatma Gandhi'. The staff artistes of BOC will also perform live art performances during the three-day event.

The conference shall be addressed by the representatives of the Union and the State governments as well as dignitaries from the ministries and organisations like the Ministry of Food Processing Industries, Ministry for Development of North Eastern Region, Ministry of Agriculture & Farmers Welfare, Ministry of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises, APEDA, NABARD, SAI, NERAMAC, NECTER, IFI IWAI, etc.

The clientele/audience for the event shall be small and medium enterprises, startups, Directorates of Industries, agricultural universities, self-help groups, technology and machinery suppliers, Krishi Vikas Kendras, Directorate of Agriculture and Horticulture, cooperative and other banks, local industry associations, entrepreneurs, aspirant entrepreneurs, Khadi and Village Industries, research institutions, student progressive farmers, etc.

Emerging NE expo in Guwahati from today

From Our Special Correspondent

G U W A H A T I : The 2nd Emerging North East 2019 exhibition cum conference will get under way here from Wednesday with an aim to facilitate investments and partnerships and provide opportunities to people and development agencies to interact with national level institutions, experts and officials.

The three-day event which is being organised by Associated Chambers of Commerce and Industry of India at the Maniram Dewan Trade Centre will feature a development exposition, agriculture and rural expo and a meeting on North East development, informs an official statement. The meet will provide an opportunity for the region to showcase its potential to the rest of